Grading Policy

Redo’s:* Students may redo assignments and tests, at the teacher’s discretion, if the grade received is 69 or below. They will be given one opportunity to correct and return the assignment by the date specified by the teacher. It is the responsibility of the student to turn in redos; teachers will not remind students. The highest grade a student can earn on a redo is 70 (AISD policy). If a redo is not completed and turned in on time, the original failing grade stands.
